Happy Miku Day, everyone!

This is the second year we have run First S☆und, and we couldn't have asked for a better group of artists to work with! Everyone's pieces were made with hard work and love, and we hope you all can feel the love too.

I want to give a big thank you to my co-moderator Kay, for joining me again this year, and to Echo, the newest addition to our team, for being such a huge help.
With everyone's collaboration, we were able to run yet another project smoothly and successfully!

We hope you enjoy seeing everyone's work as much as we loved creating this project together.

From everyone at the First S☆und
